As we look back upon the past, we see the many reflections bearing upon the present and the future. There have been many times when we were unsure of our own shadow. We were afraid, we were questioning our status, and were hoping that our next step would not be in vain. But with the reflection of our parents, teachers, and friends, light was given to us. We were given opportunities, to learn, to cultivate, and to mold our own shadow.

As we take our next step forward we want to express our gratitude to those who have given us a helping hand. We will always remember the trials and tribulations during our high school days. All those things help to make our lives more meaningful. While turning the pages of our 1965 Memoirs, we the Senior Class, hope that we will not be forgotten and that our shadows have set an example to those at Spring Hope High School.

A New Point of View . . .

Beneath us, beside us, around us—everywhere there is something that is free. Gifts lie within the reach of all who are willing but to extend their hands to receive. Man, unable to see beyond himself, is not aware of these gifts. Those things for which there is no price are spurned by man—kicked to the side of the road as he hurriedly proceeds along the way. The complexities of human character, the landscapes of nature, the evidences of a modern culture—all are victims of neglect that are pushed into the background. Seeing these commonplace things is done in passing, not with any sense of appreciation or realization of their importance.

To bring these key objects into the foreground can be accomplished by looking at surroundings from a new point of view. Those sights which are free would create a treasure chest of pleasure. Then every face on main street would reveal a trait of human nature; the backyard, a certain beauty; and the dependable television set, a storehouse of modern culture.

Only through truly open eyes can one see or appreciate life as it actually is.

Honoring a Favorite . . .

"All right, class, get out a clean sheet of paper and pencil. We're going to have a little quiz today."

We, the Senior Class, take the privilege of dedicating this MEMOIRS to one of our highly regarded teachers, MRS. ROSALYND STALLINGS. Her presence has been a guiding light for many who have known her. Mrs. Stallings has a distinct quality of being understanding and sincere with everyone.

Mrs. Stallings attended Wake Forest College. She received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Atlantic Christian College. At the University of North Carolina, she received her Master's Degree and has done graduate study at W. C. U. N. C.

Each student at Spring Hope High School admires Mrs. Stallings. She is considered not only as a teacher but also as a true friend. Her interest and concern for her students does not terminate after each day's teaching. One can seek her any time and be assured that he will find a sympathetic and trusting ear.

The seniors of 1965 have really grown to love and respect Mrs. Stallings. Through her earnest help, their Junior-Senior was a success. She will always remain in their thoughts in years to come.

Mrs. Stallings adds distinction to the school, its faculty, and the teaching profession. For her guidance, abiding and lasting friendship, and her duties as a teacher, the 1965 MEMOIRS is honoring a favorite.

We, the Senior Class of Spring Hope High School, in this year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-five, do declare and establish this last will and testament to be excuted by anyone who wishes.

ARTICLE I-FACULTY

Outstanding

KAREN INSCOE

"Sparkling eyes, laughter, friendliness... a fitting combination."

Talented, creativeness, intelligence, and the ability to influence people are all integral parts of Karen's character. Chosen as the Most Typical Senior, she not only has achieved the Beta Club, but also has been active in church and school organizations. S. H. H. S. says yes to Karen's success in the future.

BETTY JO FLORA

"A kindly heart and a friendly face, always in her usual place."

Betty Jo's quiet reserved manner is to typical of the sweet unassuming person that she is. Her nature and friendly ways have made her one of the most respected students at Spring Hope High. Never one to seek the limelight, her talents have been recognized on numerous occasions. "Outstanding" is certainly the word for Betty Jo.

Seniors

KAY DELBRIDGE

"Never to serious, never to gay but a rare good girl in every way."

Kay's pleasing personality, and her desire and ability to do well whatever she undertakes have not gone unnoticed in S. H. H. S. Always lending a helping hand and never satisfied to do less than her best, she is an asset to any organization of which she is a part.

STEVE LEONARD

"True in his work, his word, his friends."

December 7, 1964

Dear Advertisers:

The advertising department of the MEMOIRS staff would like to thank you for your support in helping to make this one of the "best" annuals ever put out by the Spring Hope High School.

Only with your co-operation was this annual possible. We know that you gave up valuable time to discuss with us exactly how you wanted your advertisement worded. For this we are very thankful.

Again, we the members of the MEMOIRS staff, would like to thank you for your contribution to our annual. We hope you will share our pride in the 1965 MEMOIRS. Withour your support it would have been impossible for us to produce this annual.

Sincerely yours,

Craig Strickland
